The Daniel K. Inouye College of Pharmacy: Pharmaceutical Sciences Symposium

The Daniel K. Inouye College of Pharmacy (DKICP) at the University of Hawai'i at Hilo held its Pharmaceutical Sciences Symposium on Saturday, January 14.

University of Hawai'i Cancer Center Director, Dr. Randall Holcombe, Center members, and Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences faculty spoke at the event. Dr. Holcombe made a guest presentation on, "Resveratrol, Wnt Signaling and Colon Cancer: From the Bench to the Clinic."

The speakers reviewed and shared updated research activity in the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences.

The vision of the Daniel K. Inouye College of Pharmacy is to drive the improvement of healthcare in Hawai'i and throughout the Pacific.
