The University of Hawai‘i Cancer Center is hosting its 6th Annual Prostate Cancer Forum. This event will feature local physician experts discussing the latest treatments, breakthroughs, and strategies in prostate cancer management. There will also be a question and answer session with our guest speakers.

Thursday, September 19, 2019

5:00 pm - 8:00 pm

University of Hawai‘i Cancer Center, Sullivan Conference Center
701 Ilalo Street, Honolulu, HI 96813

An informal reception with light refreshments at 5:00 pm followed by a seminar at 6:00 pm

RSVP: https://prostatecancerforum.eventbrite.com or call (808) 564-3970 no later than Fri., Sept 13, 2019

SPEAKERS

1. Marc Coel, MD, FACR
   Nuclear Medicine, Radiologist
   The Queen’s Medical Center
   “New Imaging Agent to Evaluate Early Prostate Cancer Recurrence”

2. Richard Lee, MD, PhD
   Radiation Oncologist
   The Cancer Center of Hawaii
   “Advances in Prostate Radiation Oncology”

3. Ian Okazaki, MD
   Medical Oncologist
   Straub Medical Center
   “Treatment Options for Advanced Prostate Cancer”

4. David Wei, MD, FACS
   Urologist
   Kaiser Permanente
   “Prostate cancer – To treat or not to treat”

PROGRAM CHAIR & MODERATOR

Charles Kim, MD
Urologist
Pali Momi Medical Center

See over for parking map
There are a total of 98 metered stalls in the Kakaako Makai area. The red numbers on the map indicate the number of stalls along the section of street. It is a 2 hour time limit for parking Mondays-Saturdays, 7:00am-6:00pm at $1.50/hour. First-come-first-served parking in Lot B, *metered street parking (free after 6pm), and paid parking in Lot C numbered stalls ($3/hr or $6/all day)

*There are a total of 98 metered stalls in the Kakaako Makai area. The red numbers on the map indicate the number of stalls along the section of street. It is a 2 hour time limit for parking Mondays-Saturdays, 7:00am-6:00pm at $1.50/hour.